Stages description

Day 1: Individual arrival to Lucerne

Welcome to Lake Lucerne. When you think of Lucerne, you immediately visualise the covered wooden bridge. And indeed, the oldest wooden bridge in Europe is the city's landmark. But the water tower, the Rigi and the Lion Monument are also well worth a visit. Let yourself be enchanted by the Mediterranean flair of the largest city on Lake Lucerne and treat yourself to a tour of this beautiful region on a paddle steamer.

Day 2: Excursion on Lake Lucerne, approx. 50 km + boat trip

In the morning, there will be a short tour briefing and you will receive the rental bikes you have booked. From then on, today's focus is on Lake Lucerne. After you have climbed a small range of hills, you can once again enjoy a view of the entire valley. Your route then takes you via Küssnacht to Weggis. You then cross over to the Horw peninsula by boat. The view of Lucerne's local mountain, Mount Pilatus, is unique here.

Day 3: Excursion through central Switzerland, approx. 50 km

In the morning, you cycle through the neighbouring village of Emmenbrücke up the ridge of the Brunauer Berg to Ruswil, the largest farming settlement in Switzerland with 245 farms. The late baroque parish church is one of the largest and most valuable church buildings in the Lucerne region. Passing the beautiful monastery complex of Werthenstein, which is clearly visible from afar, you cycle back to Lucerne along the River Emme.

Day 4: Excursion to Sursee on Lake Sempach, approx. 55 km

Today you cycle to the picturesque little town of Sursee on Lake Sempach. The tour takes you through peaceful forests and past beautiful farmhouses. There are also great views of the nearby Alpine peaks and Mount Pilatus. According to legend, the Roman prefect Pontius Pilatus is buried here. Sursee, with its beautiful lakeside location, is the perfect place for a lunch break before you start the return journey directly along Lake Sempach.

Day 5: Excursion to Lake Zug, approx. 50 km + boat trip

The first section of the route takes you back to the familiar town of Küssnacht on Lake Lucerne. You then cycle just a few kilometres and reach the beautiful Lake Zug in central Switzerland. You can admire the Rigi behind you. A boat is already waiting for you in Arth to take you to Immensee. There is a short but steep climb to master before you cycle back to Lucerne along a forest adventure trail.

Day 6: Excursion to Heidegg Castle on Lake Baldegg, approx. 55 km

The route leads past the Emmenbrücke bridge to the only privately owned Swiss lake, Lake Baldeggsee. It is home to over 300 plant species. Cycle around the lake to Heidegg Castle, picturesquely situated on the shore in the middle of a largely preserved park and cultural landscape of national importance. Before cycling back to Lucerne one last time, it is worth taking a relaxing stroll through the fragrant rose garden.

Day 7: Individual departure

After breakfast you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
