Your Tour

If the first thing you think of when you hear cycling trip through Switzerland is exhaustion and riding up steep hills, then let us change your mind! You will discover the idyllic mountain villages, the lively city of St. Moritz, and the peaceful Engadine on a relaxed cycling trip. Most of the difference in height will be covered by different transfers, one of them being the train ride to St. Moritz on the Albula Railway, which will surely be one of the highlights on your trip. And don't be surprised if you are greeted in three different languages, the people of Graubünden speak German, Italian, and Rhaeto-Romanic.

Stage Description

Day 1: Individual arrival in Constance

You will spend the day of your arrival in Constance. Here you can visit the beautiful island of Mainau, stroll through the historic city centre, and visit the Sea Life Centre aquarium or the Archäologisches Landesmuseum (archaeological museum).

Day 2: Constance – Bonaduz, approx. 45 km + transfer

Your day begins in Constance with a comfortable bus ride through the beautiful Swiss mountains. In Splügen your bike trip begins and will lead you along the Hinterrhein through two impressive gorges, which the river has carved up to 300 m deep into the mountains. You will then comfortably reach the small village of Bonaduz, which is the destination of your trip today.

Day 3: Bonaduz – Zernez, approx. 50 km + train ride

Today a long climb awaits you, but don't worry, you will comfortably be sitting inside a train on your way from Thusis to St. Moritz, so that you can admire the beautiful view you will have along the Albula Railway. After arriving, you can enjoy the unique flair of St. Moritz. Get ready for another highlight after leaving the city, your bike trip will lead you through the gorgeous landscape and lovely small villages surrounding St. Moritz. While riding through the Engadin you will pass by old farms and grand patrician houses.

Day 4: Zernez – Scuol, approx. 30 km

As you leave Zernez you will cycle along the Inn, and through the small mountain villages Lavin and Guarda. The villages lie high above the river and carry their names because of the nice view you have from there. While cycling through the small alleyways of reply to the locals greeting you with a friendly "Bun Di". Soon you will reach Scuol, your destination for today's trip.

Day 5: Scuol – Vaduz, approx. 60 km + train ride

Today it's time to leave the Inn and cycle along the Rhine again. After taking the train to Klosters you will comfortably cycle down the hill towards Landquart. Here the cycling path starts following the Rhine again and you will arrive in the small Principality of Liechtenstein having passed through the home of Heidi.

Day 6: Vaduz – St. Gallen, approx. 55 km + train ride

After cycling along the Rhine a little more you'll be brought to Gais, which lies in Appenzell, via cog railway. On your way to St. Gallen you'll be accompanied by beautiful alpine pastures with cows on them. The library of the collegiate church is one of the most important historical libraries in the world. Here, among the 160,000 books in the library, the oldest German book is kept.

Day 7: St. Gallen – Arbon – Constance, approx. 45 km

Your last day of the cycling tour starts out comfortably by rolling down the hill towards Lake Constance. Once you have reached Arbon the cycle path will take you along the shore of the lake and through some smaller towns like Romanshorn towards Constance. This last part of your path is rather level and unless there are strong west winds it should be a very relaxed last part of your trip. On your way to Constance you will find more than one opportunity to go for a swim in the lake and maybe have an ice cream at the beach.

Day 8: Individual departure or extension of stay

After breakfast, you start your individual return journey home or extend your stay.
